

give it to the child to suck on.

The foul piece of nourishment came to be called a "sugar tit". In addition, this evil skunk nurse (white) used to take fat pieces of hog meat and rub it into the poor Black child's head until blood would be popping out. All of these evil acts and dealings with the swine was to ossify (freeze or harden) the brains cells of the black child. This would prevent the Black child from think concerning self. If the Black child (as he grew) would ever question the nurse concerning self, she had been instructed by the slavemaster" (blue eyed devil) to teach and make the child believe that he was an inferior person created for it.

This child grew up to believe, after 64-years of such training and teaching (from 1555 to 1619) the white devils had completed their job of changing the Original Asiatic Blackmen (Muslims) to a slave-people.

There stood forth, from a proud righteous and wise people, a mentally blind, deaf and dumb, walking dead man. The devils came together and said, "now that we have completed the making of a slave race, what shall we call them?" The devils (white man) decided upon the name "Negro." Which is derived from the Latin word "Necro," and the Greek word "Nekros" which means dead or dealing with the dead. They knew this term fit their made product very well.

The so-called negro, (mentally dead) were distributed all over America for the purpose of building and making America a strong, productive and powerful country (for the devils) in as short a period as possible.

The year (310) that the Asiatic Blackman spent under slavery in America, is a history of the worst and most inhuman treatment that any race of people have ever experience, at the hands of this merciless race of devils.

The Blackman was made to suffer every evil injustice a wicked-mind can think of. Some of the acts committed by this evil race against our people for over 300-years, are so filthy and sadistic that they cannot be put into words.

Torture and murder were common-place affairs. For example; A Blackman was made to watch helplessly as the devils took his pregnant woman before all the other Black people, stripped her naked, and with a sharp knife cut her belly open and let the unborn baby fall to the ground. The Black woman would be left screaming for hours on end until death overtook her.

The Black slaves (called Negroes) were made to watch this, thus putting fear into their very nature (all knew something could happen to them).

The Black people were made to eat out of troughs like live-stock. It was nothing to see a devil urinate or otherwise relieve himself in the troughs that the slaves had to eat out of. No family life was allowed to exist between the Black people. Our blood was crossed up. Fathers was forced to breed with daughters and son was made to impregnate his sister or mother.

The devils themselves would impregnate the Black women (sometimes their own daughters) and put the offspring (their own children) on the block to be sold as slaves. This act alone prove them to be a race of white devils and completely void of love and
