

Brown quits

Yette, in addition, was alleged to have charged Brown with an assortment of academic improprieties including the refusal to grant him a salary of $21,000 and suggesting that he does not spend enough time at the University.

Although Brown has avoided the press, it is well known that his integrity is highly regarded. There is speculation that the question of Brown's University time and style of leadership, may have been encouraged by high government and anti-Black media sources.

The Broadcasting hierarchy and some known Federal Communications Commission Board members have been quoted as tagging Brown, "too militant."

THESE SOURCES, may have "coincidentally" raised the issues and received overeager adm nistration backing.

It appears tragically predictive that the old "crabs - in - a - barrel" fixation prevails again among so-called Negroes, leading to an inevitable depletion of student zeal and a slow - down in the school's growth and expansion.

citizens. The minister asked that Americans consider the problems of the displaced Palestinians and the Arabs whose lands are occupied by Israel which could not have been accomplished without the support of the United States government.

And further, Israel occupied Arab land with the support of the greatest American airlift in history. He stated that the U.S. supports Israel under the guise of insuring Israeli security when in fact, the U.S. committed acts of hostility by landing planes with war material for Israel on occupied Arab land.

The minister destroyed the argument that Arabs receive aid from Russia by stating that there is no parallel between the U.S.'s support of Israeli expansionist aggression and the Arabs obtaining from Russia arms to defend their land from an open aggressor.

HE ILLUSTRATED the Israelis imperialist objective by pointing out that there is a map carved in a stone above the door of the Israeli

Palestine leaders venture to Soviet

By Calvin Williams
(Special to Muhammad Speaks)

BERLIN—Anxious over their future, a large Palestinian delegation is in Moscow to bid or to persuade Soviet leaders to make their position clearer over the situation in the Middle East according to reliable sources today.

THE DELEGATION is headed by Yassir Arafat, leader of the Palestine Liberation Organization, and it is stated that the delegation includes representatives of every sector of the all guerrilla groups. Mr. Arafat, who has finished talks with leaders of Egypt, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, and Lebanon, was hoping to have a talk with Soviet Leader Brezhnev.

The Soviet Union is awaiting the outcome of the Summit talks to be held Dec. 26, in Algiers. In Beirut, a reliable source stated that the King has proposed a referendum to decide the future of the occupants of the West Bank and that the Palestine resistance leaders are in favor, provided Jordan does not supervise the vote.

Mr. Arafat's group wants the referendum supervised internationally or by a group of Arab countries. One problem which could lead to sharp differences of opinion would be to decide if the refugees and the resistance groups outside of the Israeli occupied West Bank would be allowed to vote. Most of them live in Lebanon, Syria, and Jordan.

AS AN ARAB League delegation left for Cairo to set up next Monday's Arab Summit, it was learned in Belgrade that Colonel Qaddafi of Libya, who was bringing his talks with President Tito to a close, will be in Paris on Thursday to see President Pompidou. In Paris he will address a press conference sponsored by the three newspapers.

The Libyan leader was cordially greeted in Belgrade when he arrived for a four day visit. He was greeted and embraced by President Tito. Obviously, there are differences of viewpoints on international matters, and particularly on the Middle East, but there is also much common ground.

Both leaders share the opinion that the big powers should not decide alone on matters concerning other countries or impose their wills upon the smaller nations.
